

Reasons why you should get trip insurance

At Pure Adventures, we're strong believers in travel insurance, and you probably have noticed that since we keep on reminding you to get travel insurance! With over 20 years of experience, we also know that cancellation is not something you plan, unforeseen circumstances just happen, but cancellation fees still apply and you could lose a lot of money. Here are some of the reasons why some clients had to cancel in the past, but also some things covered by travel insurance WHILE traveling.

Reasons resulting in cancellation	Coverage once traveling
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Pre-existing conditions if you need to cancel because you are not healthy. - Elderly parents get sick - Death in family - Kids get broken arm/ sick - Terrorist attack within 30 days of departure in destination city - Having to postpone because of work (some plans include cancel for any reason) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Baggage is lost or delayed - Bringing your own bike, and bike is lost in transit - Rental car damage - Trip interruption: if you have to head home during your trip, all expenses are covered - Evacuation in case of danger - Bike rental theft/loss (Travel Safe only) - Medical expenses while traveling

How to get travel insurance?

There are many travel insurance companies to choose from. We recommend comparing plans and choosing what's best for you and the reasons why you're getting coverage.

You can also check with some credit cards because some of them include trip insurance, but again check that the coverage is enough to cover your trip.

Here are some links for companies we recommend:

- US & Canada residents: Travel Safe
- Australian residents: AIG
- New Zealand residents: AIG

